

Supplementary Figure 3

Annual (A) intercept and (B) slope values (solid lines) derived from the weight-length relationships for 1964 through 2014 from historical data for Gulf menhaden in the northern Gulf of Mexico estimated with 95% Bayesian confidence intervals (dashed lines). The horizontal black line represents the constant value for intercept and slope, respectively, estimated in Schueller at al. (2012).