

COMMERCIAL FISHERIES REVIEW

A REVIEW OF DEVELOPMENTS AND NEWS OF THE FISHERY INDUSTRIES
PREPARED IN THE DIVISION OF COMMERCIAL FISHERIES

A. W. Anderson, Editor

F. F. Johnson, Associate Editor

C. R. Lucas, Assistant Editor

Applications for COMMERCIAL FISHERIES REVIEW, which is mailed free to members of the fishery industry and allied interests, should be addressed to the Director, Fish and Wildlife Service, United States Department of the Interior, Washington, 25, D.C.

The contents of this publication have not been copyrighted and may be reprinted freely; however, reference to the source will be appreciated. The Service assumes no responsibility for the accuracy of material from outside sources.

CONTENTS

Cover: In April, preparation for the Columbia River salmon pack gets well under way. The packing season begins early in May. These retorts, used to cook the salmon after it is packed and sealed in the can, are located in one of the larger canneries in the area.

Source - Office of War Information.

	Page
FISH FOR BREAKFAST--AND WHY NOT? by K. L. Osterhaug .....	1
Fish dishes can make the day's first meal much more appetizing and nourishing.
PRESERVATION OF SHUCKED ALASKA CLAMS, by F. Piskur and M. E. Stansby .....	5
Experiments develop a treatment to permit Alaska's little-used clam resources to supply markets in Washington and Oregon.
VITAMIN A AND D IN FISH LIVERS AND VISCERA, by C. Butler .....	13
The need for these ready reference tables of vitamin A and D in fish livers and viscera has often been apparent.
SECTIONAL REVIEWS (Chesapeake, Middle Atlantic, South Atlantic and Gulf) .....	20
TECHNOLOGICAL RESEARCH IN SERVICE LABORATORIES .....	23
FRESH AND FROZEN FISH .....	25
CANNED AND CURED FISH .....	31
FISHERY BYPRODUCTS .....	33
OTHER FISHERY NOTES .....	34
FOREIGN FISHERY TRADE .....	42
FEDERAL LEGISLATION, DECISIONS, ORDERS, ETC. ....	50
Civilian Production Administration:
Cans .....	50
Oil Imports .....	50
Department of Agriculture:
Containers .....	50
Marine Paints .....	51
Sardine Imports .....	51
International Fisheries Commission (1946 Halibut Regulations) .....	52
Office of Price Administration:
Exemptions and Suspensions .....	52
Oysters and Clam Shells .....	53
Crabmeat .....	53
Fresh and Frozen Fish and Seafoods .....	53
Treasury Department (Dogfish-liver Oil) .....	54
War Department (Alaskan Restrictions) .....	55
RECENT FISHERY PUBLICATIONS .....	56