

COMMERCIAL FISHERIES REVIEW

A REVIEW OF DEVELOPMENTS AND NEWS OF THE FISHERY INDUSTRIES
PREPARED IN THE DIVISION OF COMMERCIAL FISHERIES

A. W. Anderson, Editor

F. F. Johnson, Associate Editor

C. R. Lucas, Assistant Editor

Applications for COMMERCIAL FISHERIES REVIEW, which is mailed free to members of the fishery industry and allied interests, should be addressed to the Director, Fish and Wildlife Service, United States Department of the Interior, Washington, 25, D.C.

The contents of this publication have not been copyrighted and may be reprinted freely; however, reference to the source will be appreciated. The Service assumes no responsibility for the accuracy of material from outside sources.

CONTENTS

Cover: Two Gloucester fishermen repair a mackerel purse seine between trips to the fishing grounds.

Source: Office of War Information.

	Page
GLOUCESTER--THREE CENTURIES A FISHING PORT, by Homer Haberland	1
The war years have seen Gloucester become the Nation's foremost port in food fish production.
GRAYFISH LIVER COLOR RELATED TO FIN-SPINE LENGTH, by F. B. Sanford and K. Bonham ..	6
Observations suggest that vitamin A potency of grayfish livers is greater in individuals of slowest growth.
CONVERSION OF SALMON CANNERY TO CLAM PACKING, by L. G. McKee	9
With a minimum of alteration, a salmon cannery is converted to off-season canning of clams.
SECTIONAL REVIEWS (Middle Atlantic)	12
TECHNOLOGICAL RESEARCH IN SERVICE LABORATORIES, APRIL 1946	13
FRESH AND FROZEN FISH	18
CANNED AND CURED FISH	26
FISHERY BYPRODUCTS	28
OTHER FISHERY NOTES	30
FOREIGN FISHERY TRADE	37
FEDERAL LEGISLATION, DECISIONS, ORDERS, ETC.	44
Civilian Production Administration:
Glass Containers	44
Department of Agriculture:
Active Food Orders	44
Canned Atlantic Mackerel	45
Canned Continental United States Salmon	45
Salmon Set-aside	46
Office of Price Administration:
Exemptions	47
Fish Meal and Scrap	47
Norwegian Sardines	47
Price Controls Suspended	48
Summer Mark-ups	50
Winter Mark-ups	50
RECENT FISHERY PUBLICATIONS	52